

Abstract Preparation Guidelines

Author Name(s)

- There is no limit to the number of abstracts an author may submit. If an abstract is accepted, the presenter must be one of the co-authors listed.
- An author may present no more than one abstracts. If more than one submissions are accepted from an author, one of his/her co-authors must present any additional abstracts.
- If an author's name appears on more than one abstract, it must be identical on each submission.
- Do not list authors by initials only.

Please see an example below:

Hezarkhani A¹, Etminan S², Adami G³, Kadkol S⁴, Bland J⁴, Bennett Z⁵, Thakkar P⁶, Naqvi A⁷, Schwartz J³

Data

- Authors may not submit the same research. Abstracts that appear to be replicate versions of a single study will be rejected.
- Abstracts containing identical or nearly identical data submitted from the same institution and/or individuals will be rejected.

Format

- Abstracts content should be structured into the following four (4) sections:
 - Background:
 - Methods:
 - Results:
 - Conclusions:

Content

- Word limit – Abstracts are limited to 250 words. This includes the text but not the title or authors.
- Please use Arial font 11 or 12 for the abstract preparation.
- Abbreviations – A maximum of five (5) unique abbreviations is allowed within the body of the abstract. No abbreviations should appear in the title. Place abbreviations in parentheses after the full word or phrase the first time it appears. Abbreviations increase the difficulty of reading and evaluating abstracts, which will be considered in the review process.

- Clarity of expression will be considered in the review process. The overall quality of language used should assure comprehension by the reader.
- Do not include:
 - References, key words, credits, or grant support in your submission.
 - Names or personal information of any patient participating in the study or trial. If you do, the abstract will not be considered for presentation.
 - Authors or institutions in the title.
- Title format: lowercase linking words in the title, unless used at the beginning of the title or after a colon. Bold the title and do not put a period at the end.
 - Examples of linking words: a, an, and, as, at, but, by, for, in, is, of, on, or, the, to, via
 - Examples of proper title format:
“Periodontal Bacteria Modulate Immune Responses by Suppressing Anti-inflammatory miR-142-3p and Augmenting Pro-inflammatory miR-155/NFκB axis”
- Proofread abstracts carefully to avoid errors and ensure compliance with the guidelines.
- If accepted, one the authors will have to present the data as a short talk or poster presentation. Authors will be notified by August 01, 2024.
